

Who is Werner Gitt?

Prof. Dr. Werner Gitt was born in Raineck, East Prussia (Germany), on 22nd of February 1937. In 1963 he enrolled at the Technical University of Hanover and in 1968 he completed his studies as Diplom-Ingenieur. Thereafter he worked as assistant in the Institute of Control Technology at the Technical University of Aachen. Following two years of research work, he received his doctorate in Engineering summa cum laude in 1971 together with the prestigious 'Borchers Medal' of the Technical University of Aachen. In the same year Werner Gitt started his career at the Federal Institute of Physics and Technology (Physikalisch-Technische Bundesanstalt Braunschweig, 'PTB'), Brunswick. In 1978 he was promoted to a Director and Professor at the PTB. From 1971 to 2002 he was the Head of 'Information Technology'.

He has written numerous scientific papers in the field of information science, as well as many others concerned with mathematics and control technology. He has held lectures on related topics at numerous universities at home and abroad. Since 1984 he has been a regular guest lecturer at the State Independent Theological University of Basle, Switzerland, on the subject of 'The Bible and Science'. He has spoken on the topic 'Faith and Science' in all five continents and in many different countries (e. g. Australia, Austria, Belgium, Czech, France, Hungary, Kazakhstan, Kirghizia, Lithuania, Namibia, New Zealand, Norway, Paraguay, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Russia, South Africa, Sweden, Switzerland, USA, White Russia). Most of these talks were strongly evangelistic. He married his wife Marion in 1966; Carsten was born in September 1969, and Rona in April 1969.